

Imphal, Manipur

Scenes from Imphal-East District schools where we distributed MoonCatcher reusable pads.

The launch of our Menstrual Hygiene & Management (MHM) project in Manipur took place on November 23, 2019 in Imphal. Officiating the inaugural event, Dr. Rangitabali Waikhom, Deputy Commissioner, Imphal-East. Dr. Waikhom initiated our program under the umbrella of the 'Beti Bachao, Bet Padhao' campaign and distributed our pads to hundreds of schoolgirls.

We sincerely appreciate the attention and welcome reception we received from Dr. Waikhom, Deputy Commissioner, Imphal-East and the local schools.

Patiala, Punjab

Our MHM project in Patiala was in partnership with the Punjab Government under guidance from Smt. Preneet Kaur, MP – Patiala, which was launched at an event on October 31, 2019 during which she addressed local Block administrators and distributed MoonCatcher pads.

We visited several Patiala-area schools and rural community gatherings to introduce MoonCatcher reusable pads, provide our educational program and to distribute kits. We have been invited to return to the area and distribute more pads.

Parmarth Ashram, Rishikesh

On November 19, 2019, Pujya Swami Chidanand Saraswati introduced the MoonCatcher reusable pad kit at a Parmarth Ashram event attended by Smt. Baby Rani Maurya, Governor of Uttarakhand and distributed our pad kits to local schoolgirls. As a pilot with Global Interfaith Wash Alliance (GIWA), the ashram's initiative focused on Menstrual Hygiene & Management, we conducted a training session for the staff and provided 500 pad kits for local distribution. We have been invited to advance our project by providing more pads to the GIWA MHM lab.

Dehradun & Rishikesh, Uttarakhand

In our Uttarakhand outreach, we distributed pad kits to students at the Akhil Bhartiya Mahila Ashram and at local a school in Rishikesh.

Nashik, Maharashtra

Working with the Inner Wheel Club of Devlali – an auxillary of the Rotary Club, we have distributed MoonCatcher pad kits to several schools in Nashik. Given the postive reception, we are planning to send more pads for distribution.

NCR & Uttar Pradesh

Starting in February 2019, we have distributed over 1,000 kits in schools in U.P. and NCR.

We conducted a training session for 50 teachers from schools across several U.P. communities. We have been invited to conduct more such workshops on MHM education and instruction.

We recently distributed over 200 pad-kits at the Udayan Foundation School in New Delhi.

Sponsorship of Secondary Education

Deki's sponsorship of 5 girls attending Marigold High School, NOIDA continues. They receive extra-curricular and supplemental instruction via Siddharth Foundation. Some of their accomplishments are fluency in English, facility in French and STEM skills including robotics.
